

Notice - PMKVY RFP 2018

It has come to our notice that certain individuals / groups of individuals / institutions have been fraudulently demanding money on behalf of National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) for the processing of PMKVY RFP Proposals. These individuals / institutions have been sending emails or calling using the National Skill Development Corporation's name to PMKVY Training Providers and asking for money.

We hereby declare that all such statements and representations made in such correspondence are not made on behalf of or with any authorization from NSDC Office, New Delhi. NSDC had asked only for one-time fee of Rs 25000/- per Applicant organization that was payable online only at the time of proposal submission through <https://pmkvyrfp.nsdcindia.org/>.

National Skill Development Corporation does not demand any extra money from training providers for the processing of RFP proposals.

Issued by National Skill Development Corporation, for the awareness and to safeguard the interest of all Training provider.